TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

1. Judging will be done by equal six person teams.
2. Your sample will be judged by all members of a judging team.
3. Each judge will rate the sample for APPEARANCE, TASTE, and TENDERNESS and scored from 9 to 1 points each. The TASTE score will be doubled. The lowest score will be dropped but will be used to break ties. The Build a Hogburger category will be judged on APPEARANCE, TASTE, and NAME. The five highest judges' scores will be tallied for overall points. The lowest judges score (6th judge) will be dropped and not used for the totals.
4. Results will be tallied. If there is a tie it will be broken as follows: The low score that was thrown out (as mentioned above) will be added to the cumulative score to break the tie. If still tied, the judging slips will be compared for the highest cumulative scores in TASTE first, then TENDERNESS, then APPEARANCE. All of these categories will utilize the 6th judge scores.
5. Total points per entry will determine the category winner within each classification.
6. Cumulative points for all classifications will determine the grand champion. Second place in cumulative points for all classifications will determine the Reserve Grand Champion. (Showmanship results do not add into cumulative scores, it will be judged as a separate contest.)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBMITTING SAMPLES FOR JUDGING:

Judging will start at 3:20pm – Saturday, August 28th – Only the designate 4 person teammates can touch or handle your entries.

1. Judging will be done on a category basis in the following order: 1. Appearance 2. Taste 3. Tenderness. Judging times are: 3:20pm Build a Hogburger, 4:00pm Open Category, 4:30 pm Pork Ribs, and 5:00 pm Pork Butt.
2. Turn in your sample on time. You will have a 10 minute window to turn in your entry. The Build a Hogburger category turn in starts at 3:20pm with a final turn in time of 3:30pm. All other categories will be turned in on the half hour with a ten minute grace period past the turn in time. Example: 4:00 pm turn in means entries must be turned in between 4:00 pm to 4:10 pm.
3. A horn will be blown to open and close the turn in time for each category. The rule is your entry must be turned in within the ten minutes from the first to the second blow of the horn.
4. Submit enough of your entry to feed six judges and place in the official container provided by BBQ Officials. Remember, appearance is one of the judging criteria. For the Build a Hogburger category you will need to submit two entries: One for appearance and the second cut in 6 pieces for judges' samples. Contestants will be provided two containers by the BBQ officials.
5. If you cover your meat with sauce it will be judged that way. If you submit it dry (no sauce) it will be judged that way. No pooling or cups of sauce will be allowed for the judges to dip.
6. Garnish is limited to only green leaf lettuce (no red tipped lettuce or kale), and common curly parsley. This means no aluminum foil. This applies for the Open, Ribs, and Pork Butt Categories. The only exception to this rule is the Build a Hogburger category in which anything goes.
7. Samples for judging must completely fit in the provided container with the lid closed for judging.
8. The Open Category:
  - a. Entries must utilize some portion of Indiana Kitchen Bacon.
  - b. Open category entries must be meat, poultry, seafood, side dishes or desserts.
  - c. Open categories will not be judged on tenderness.
  - d. Contestants will be allowed to use containers inside their box to help secure the entry if needed. Example: baked beans/desserts could be placed in a separate cup within the provided container for each of the judges.
